

Telecommuting Opportunity for Non-Clinical, Physician (MD or DO)

We are a growing company seeking an M.D. or D.O. in any specialty who enjoys keeping their clinical knowledge current by learning about new medical products and services being brought to the healthcare market. Our physicians contact our clients' prospects by telephone, scheduling the clients' salespeople for meetings with individuals who make or influence buying decisions.

Doctor of Osteopathy or Medical Doctor credential required, residency not required

The ideal candidate:

- Enjoys a culture of excellence
- Is highly motivated
- Is persuasive when necessary
- Has excellent communication skills
- Has required knowledge of computers, including Microsoft Office Word, Outlook, and the Internet.

The majority of time will be spent on the telephone and in front of a computer. There is no travel. Sales experience is a plus. Pay includes a base salary plus compensation above base (CAB).
